RHYTHM SAFARI: Beats of the World

After the huge success of Grant's 2008 Playing Australia tour and his recent 2009 European tour, get ready to be blown away with his latest show, "Rhythm Safari: Beats of the World", featuring a range of compositions influenced by world music and world cultures.

As one of the world's leading drumset composers/performers, Grant's concerts have been celebrated around the globe as original, entertaining, inspiring and totally mind-blowing. His $80,000 drumset (the largest in the southern hemisphere) acts as a prop for Grant to showcase his talents and to express a level of artistry, which has seen him rise as one of the forerunners of solo drumset composition and performance. He is quickly being known as a force in new contemporary music and his concerts offer a personal insight into his unique world of drumming.

Grant engages the audiences with a literal percussion tour de force. His mesmerising performance will take them on a journey, which expresses the creativity and passion of a virtuoso and his instrument. Grant's concerts have blown away so many audiences around the world from the young to the old, from the experienced musician to the music enthusiast. He also builds a unique bond with the audience, concentrated yet vulnerable through his sometimes-mischievous descriptions detailing the inspirations behind his compositions.

An unbelievable drummer, a dynamic performer, a great night out! City Recital Hall, Sydney
