SNAGGED

A poignant and funny story about coming of age, discovering who you are and vegetarian sausages. This is a show for young people and anyone who has grown up in a country town.

Oxbrook: everyone knows everyone else and most young people want to get out and head for the city. Sam, the butcher's daughter (and closet vegetarian), is no different. She and her best mate Beth plan to head to Brisbane as soon as possible, to start their new careers and to cut a swathe through Brisbane's eligible bachelors. That is until Sam meets Josh — Josh has done the unthinkable and moved back home to try and start his own career and mend fences with his family.

Written by Robert Kronk and featuring an ensemble cast of four of Queensland's finest actors.

"deBASE are one of Queensland's most established and successful independent theatre companies"

Saffron Benner, Playlab
